ASSETS $4,000,000. ASSETS $4,000,000.

SEPT. 1st. 1866.

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE CO., OF HARTFORD, CONN.

W. H. CROW,

General Agent,

For the State of North Carolina, Petersburg, Va., and surrounding Counties.

IN addition to the loss and prompt payment of James Kinseys policy for $5,000, is now added another loss, by the death of J. E. Weeks, of Elizabeth City, N. C. for $5,000, and again promptly settled by the Ætna.

By this practical illustration of the advantages of Life Insurance, it is commended to the confidence and support of every one desirous of providing for surviving loved ones.

As an investment merely, a Life Insurance Policy is as safe an investment of funds as can be made. The principal, generally, is not only many times in excess of the amount paid, but in a sound company it has no rival for security, and no species of Government bonds are a more desirable investment.

EXCHANGE OF N. C. BONDS FOR STOCKS,

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Raleigh, September 27th. 1866.

The Public are reminded that, in pursuance of an Ordinance of the late Convention, sealed proposals will be received by the undersigned, until 12 M., on the first day of November next, for the exchange of the principal of bonds issued by the State before the 20th. May 1861, for the Stocks held by the State in the various Rail Roads and other Companies, of which the following are the principal:

North Carolina R. R. Co.	$3,000,000,
Raleigh & Gaston R. R. Co.	632,500,
Atlantic & N. C. R. R.	$1,066,000,
Western N. C. R. R. Co.	$1,418,000,
Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal Co.	$ 350,000,

No bid less than par will be entertained. Any premiums offered may be applied to payment of the Interest due on the bonds offered in exchange. Bids will be opened in the presence of the Governor and Comptroller, and those will be accepted most advantageous to the State.

In consequence of the bonds and liens, held by the State on various Rail Road Companies, having been in part executed during the late war, I have concluded not to offer them for exchange until the reception of special instructions from the General Assembly.

I have deferred the time of opening bids in order that parties interested might have opportunity of examining the reports of the various Companies for the present year, which no doubt can be obtained from the proper officers of the Companies.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

MRS. S. D. HARRISON.

WM. E. PEIRCE, } Editors.
SEATON GALES. }

Saturday Evening, October 20, 1866.

The Election--The Howard Amendment.

The election, on Thursday, may be regarded as fully developing the strength of the Howard amendment in North Carolina, not as a matter of choice, for very few would vote for it upon its merits, but as a dernier resort, to "get the best we can." Gen. Dockery was announced as not consenting to run, and yet his name was held up as a candidate, and his friends, or rather the friends of Mr. Holden and the Howard amendment, exerted themselves to secure him as large a vote as possible. We have heard from sixteen or seventeen Counties, and yet in no instance has any man been elected who avowed himself in favor of the Howard amendment, that we can learn.

Owing to the prevailing idea that Gov. Worth had no opposition, not half the vote of the State was brought out. Thousands deeply interested in their own personal affairs, believing the election of Gov. Worth certain, failed to vote. We regret this, as we conceive it to have been a matter of the first importance, that the full vote of the State should have been brought out against the Howard amendment. The vote, it is true, is emphatic enough as to the position of the State, yet even the small vote of Gen. Dockry, as compared with the vote given for Gov. Worth, will be used at the North as evidence of the comparative strength of Radicalism in the State. The Standard expresses the opinion that there will be forty Howard amendment men in the next Legislature, on joint ballot. We predict there will not be twenty, unless there should be men elected who are base enough to deceive their constituents.

The Dangers of Indifference.

The prostration of the material interests of the Southern people, and the temper exhibited towards them by the dominant party at the North, are exerting an influence upon them that portends a recklessness and an indifference to their political future, which is unworthy of a free people or a people who desire to be free. This indifference is manifested in two forms: first, in the low estimate which our people fix upon the elective franchise, one of the highest political endowments of free citizens, and secondly, in the extreme carelessness which is evinced in the selection of candidates to discharge the duties of legislation.

We are not sure but both of these are the natural results of our system of government, intensified by the proclivity to popularize office and position, and to promote the largest liberty of all classes—a thing every way desirable, if it did not tend to disorder and demoralization.—The subjection of all classes to the rigid rules of partizan machinery—the connection of all the rewards of office with fidelity to party, has certainly been the immediate source of this evil, which now affects us in the South. As long as partizan fidelity paid, so long it was easy to keep up the spirits and the hopes of the Southern people, and so long men were subservient to party, and were ready to perform the obligation of citizenship at the ballot box; but since partyism has died out, and the interests of our people have become common, and reduced to the simple idea of self-preservation, the higher aims and interests of the citizen have been laid aside. The question, "what shall I do for my country?" seldom occurs to us, so pressing have become the clamors of the question, "what shall I do for myself?"

Every one has noticed, since the war closed, what a large number of our most sober and best people have kept themselves aloof from the ballot box. How few of this class can be induced to feel an interest in public affairs,—to concern themselves in bringing out substantial candidates, or, when such proffer their services, to show the necessary appreciation of them, to go to the polls and vote, if any excuse can be furnished for the neglect! How common is it to hear men say "I have voted too much already," "it has done me more harm than good," "I have lost everything, and feel no concern in public affairs," or "if I vote it will do no good!" At no election in this State, for a long time, has a full vote been drawn out. In many cases, not more than half of our voting population have gone to the polls. Before the war this indifference was perceptible. Many of the best men of the country had ceased to interest themselves in the public good, and almost the entire control of public affairs was given up to demagogues, party hacks, and to men who followed politics as a vocation, a trade which must pay in some form. How much of the evils and dangers of the present time may be laid to this indifference, we shall perhaps never know.

What is to be the result of this indifference? First, if the country is governed at all, it will be badly governed. Secondly, in this critical state of our public affairs, the public control may be placed in bad hands--indifference, on the part of the people, will serve only as an invitation to those who hold the power of legislation to encroach by littles upon the franchises and liberty of the people. The public eye being in a great measure withdrawn from the acts and doings of the government, the disorder grows worse and worse, until the practical surrender or neglect of the elective franchise will come to be considered a real acquiescence in whatever may be done, until the liberty of the citizen is gone forever! We almost shudder for our fate, when we hear the affirmation of many that they will never vote again.—That is a bid for our political ruin.

Our public agents, of whatever kind, need to be watched. Fidelity on the part of public agents can only be secured long at a time, when they are made to feel that the public eye is on them, and that there is a day of reckoning ahead. The ballot box, under our Constitution, is the only cure for national or political diseases; if this be neglected, torpor and death ensue.

The Dead of the Past.—Interesting Memorials.

We resume our sketches. We are pleased to learn that they meet with favor in the community, and we shall be obliged to those, especially of our older citizens, who are in possession of facts or incidents connected with the honored "dead of the past," who sleep within the precincts of the City Cemetery, if they will communicate them to us verbally or in writing.

"In memory of JOHN REX, a native of Pennsylvania and one of the earliest settlers in Raleigh, who departed this life on the 29th day of January, A. D. 1839, aged 74 years. He sustained through life the character of an honest and industrious man, and at his death, he devoted the fruits of his industry and economy to purposes of benevolence and charity."

Jno. Rex is represented to have been a man of eccentric habits and peculiar ways, but industrious, honest and correct. He was a tanner by trade and conducted that business on what was considered in his day, and in the then industrial necessities of the times, as quite an extensive scale. His great frugality was considered by some as verging on parsimony, but this impression is not sustained by the general tenor of his life. He emancipated, long before his death, all the slaves he owned, and sent them out of the State,—we believe, to Liberia,—and, by will, bequeathed a considerable portion of the estate which he had accumulated to the establishment of an asylum for the indigent. The amount thus devised was directed to be placed on interest until it should increase to a sufficient extent to accomplish, in an effectual and proper manner, the benevolent object of the testator.—The fund was for years successfully managed by William Peace and Geo. W. Haywood, as Trustees,—principally by the former, who bestowed upon the trust that methodical and scrupulous care with which he was accustomed to invest the discharge of every duty. Just prior to the war, it had attained very respectable dimensions,—almost adequate to the contemplated charity. We are not advised of its existing status or of the names of the present Trustees.

Jno. Rex was respected as one of the oldest and most useful citizens of Raleigh, though he trod the vale of humble life and was not called to any notable positions in society. The "Rex Hospital," should it ever be completed, will be a monument to his memory, however, more substantial and enduring than that based, ordinarily, upon the fleeting popular admiration of more conspicuous names.

"WILLIAM HILL, Secretary of the State of North Carolina for 46 years. Born Sept. 23, 1773; died Oct. 20, 1857—aged 84 years. 'I know that my Redeemer liveth, and He shall stand at the latter day upon the earth.'—Job, ch. 19, v. xxv."

Few men have lived whose lives present a more unblemished record than that of "old Secretary Hill," as, in his declining years, he was almost universally designated, with affectionate veneration. The day is far distant, we trust, when his unobtrusive simplicity of character, and rigid observance of all the Christian virtues, will cease, in this community, to be held up as an example to the young, or when his conscientious, exact and faithful discharge of his official duties shall not be regarded as a model for all public servants. The office of Secretary of State is as naturally associated with the remembrance of Mr. Hill as is the Bank with that of Judge Cameron, or the North Carolina Bookstore with the name of our still living and venerable townsman, Henry D. Turner.

Mr. Hill was a native of Stokes. He came to Raleigh in 1795, as clerk to James Glasgow, then Secretary of State, (and who had been one of the Council of Safety in Wilmington in 1776,) who went out of office in 1798, when William White was elected. On his death, in October 1811, Mr. Hill was elected, in November following, his successor, and held the office until the day of his death, amid all the mutations of party. That would have been a desperate party, indeed, that would have dared to lay its proscriptive hands upon William Hill.—He came to be regarded as an heir-loom, or as an old family portrait, which it would have been deemed a species of sacrilege to displace. His first wife was Sally Geddy, by whom he had several children,—among the number Dr. William G. Hill, of this City. His second wife, who survives him, was Frances Connor Blount, a lineal descendant of Governor Archdale, the Quaker Colonial Governor of North Carolina in 1695.

A career spent in the quiet discharge of public and private duty, the simple exercise of the social amenities, and the tranquil pursuits of every day life, finds its best and truest reward in the confidence, esteem and affection of the community in which it is passed. These Secretary Hill enjoyed in an eminent degree.

Fancy brings him back, as he was wont to repair from his residence on Hillsboro street to his familiar office in the Capitol, with his tall and venerable figure and active step, carrying in his hand the long and peculiar cane which he always used, courteously greeting all whom he met, and commanding the respectful salutation of every class and color.

"In memory of JOSEPH PEACE, of the firm of Joseph and William Peace, born April 2, 1766. Died Dec. 3rd, 1842, in the 77th year of his age. This monument is erected by his afflicted brother and surviving partner."

Joseph Peace, with his brother William, (who died in 1865,) was for many years a merchant of this city, and carried on the business in the building now occupied by M. Rosenbaum. He enjoyed the public confidence as an upright, useful citizen. Closely attentive to business, and precise, accurate and systematic in attention to details, he acquired a handsome fortune for the time in which he lived. Tradition represents him as having been a man of much quaint and quiet humor, which is rarely associated with character of so practical a cast as his appears to have been. An instance is related of his jocose propensities: It was his practice to keep almanacs for sale, for in his day almanacs were regarded as infallible and one was deemed indispensable to every farmer's household. A countryman having bought one of "Gales' Almanacs," an institution in the good old times years agone, was humorously persuaded by Mr. Peace to discard it, upon the ground that it did not promise rain at the right time, while his assured it "at the very season when it was most needed!"

Both brothers, Joseph and William, were models of business promptitude and punctuality. The latter, particularly, we venture to say, was never five minutes out of the way of an engagement, in rain or shine, if his health permitted. A remarkably strong mutual affection existed between them. Neither was ever married.

Is it True?

We have expressed the belief, heretofore, that Ex. Prov. Gov. Holden was not serving the Radical policy for naught. No one can think for a moment, that, at heart, he sanctions Radical measures or the Howard Amendment, as fair, just and proper measures for North Carolina. We have heard it several times hinted that he has in prospect no small pay as the result of his labors in the Radical cause. Since the election we have heard it distinctly stated that he anticipates a position on the next Radical ticket for the Presidency, as the candidate for Vice-President. If it be true that he expects such a thing, which we very much doubt, we predict he will be as much disappointed as he was about San Salvador.

WE ACCEPT the correction of the Richmond Enquirer in regard to the Consolidation of the Rail Roads, in Virginia. We acknowledged our error on yesterday. It appears that the private stockholders, east of Lynchburg, are more favorable to consolidation than those of the Va. and Tenn. R. Road. If we had studied the account we saw, we should doubtless have been correct, but we ask our friend of the Enquirer what time editors of daily papers in North Carolina have to study any thing? We shall however keep our eye skinned in future.

THE MISSISSIPPI Legislature met in extra session on Monday. The Governor in his message states that the removal of the negro troops from the State and the transfer of the Freedmen's Bureau to the officers of the Regular army are subjects of congratulation. He deplores the state of the country and encloses the constitutional amendment, but presumes that the mere reading of it will insure its rejection. He recommends the admission of negro testimony, in all courts, and requests that provision be made for the education of the indigent children of confederate soldiers, and for the relief of destitute disabled confederate and State soldiers.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.

Stanton again Reported to take Leave--Some Foundation for it this Time---The Mission to Spain---Important Interview at the White House.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17, 1866.

The statement is revived that Mr. Stanton will soon retire from the War Department; and although it is made with a fair show of plausibility, there are very many who express grave doubts of that event. I am confident that up to a late hour yesterday afternoon no application had been made to the President by Mr. Stanton to be relieved, either verbally or in writing, and my opinion is, with that of others who have opportunities of being posted on the matter, that when Mr. Stanton does retire from the War Department it will be at the request of the President. He may, however, avoid being asked to resign by anticipating the demand, and probably has prepared such a letter, which will soon be laid before the President. Lieutenant-General Sherman, who is in accord with the President in regard to his policy of restoring the Southern States to their relations in the Union, has been invited here, and if he succeeds the present Secretary of War, will only remain in charge of the Department for a time. General Steedman's friends are still of the opinion that he will be Secretary of War before the end of the year; and although nothing definite can be said on the subject, that appointment is not near so improbable as many others which have been made.

The report that Mr. Stanton will succeed ex-Senator Hale, of New Hampshire, as Minister of the United States at Spain, is an old story revived. Its foundation may rest upon the fact that our present Envoy at Spain is dissatisfied with the trifling salary of $12,000 in gold, while Mr. Stanton is anxious to display his functions as a foreign minister, having no objection, meantime, to the remuneration he would receive.

General Grant, Secretary Seward and the President were together for several hours today. It is understood that their interview was a very important one. There are indications of something in the near future which will prove of very great interest to the country.

TIMON.

GENERAL BEAUREGARD IN WASHINGTON—THE LADIES KISS HIM.—It will afford the Southern "rebels" much satisfaction to read the following outburst of indignation:

To the Editor of the Chronicle:

On Monday night, at Wall's Opera House, was given a dramatic performance for the benefit of the "Southern Aid Society." Prominent amongst the spectators was General Beauregard, who occupied a private box. When he made his exit at the end of the play, it was enough to make all loyal folks blush to see the "sympathisers" crowding around him, grasping his hand, yet red with the blood of our brothers. Some ladies went so far as to kiss him. Please make an item of this for the public to ponder over. ONE WHO WAS THERE.

From the North Carolina Presbyterian.

BLADEN COUNTY, Oct. 5, 1866.

DEAR SIR:—In your issue of the "Presbyterian" of Sept. 19th, you spoke of the wonderful operation of transmitting blood from the body of a healthy person to that of a sickly one, as having just been performed at Vienna. Thirty years ago, Dr. James H. Dickson, late of Wilmington, performed the operation with success by inserting a glass tube in orifices in the arms of Mrs. Horton and Mrs. Hutton, two sisters then residing in Fayetteville, and thereby saved the life of one, who was dying from debility.

THE TEN SOUTHERN STARS.—If the ten States lately involved in secession, are no longer in the Union, why are the ten stars representing them still kept on the National Banner? It is a miserable mockery to keep them there in company with the other stars, if the States they represent do not exist. The Radicals profess the most unbounded devotion for the flag, yet if their theory is true, the flag is false, and every disunion speech in Congress gives the lie to the glorious ensign which floats over the Capitol.—To be consistent, black lines should be drawn over the ten Southern stars, and, on the effaced symbols of the departed States, should be inscribed, in great, red letters—"EXPUNGED."—Baltimore Transcript.

The President and the South.

Black republican newspapers are now busy in concocting and circulating rumors that the President is about to change his policy, and that the Southern States are seriously considering the constitutional amendment. The wish is father to the thought. Mr. Johnson and every member of his cabinet are as firmly pledged to the maintenance of his policy of restoration as men can be pledged by solemn and repeated declarations of opinion and intentions. The President, in his speech at St. Louis, said he had taken his position on the question of restoration, and that he should not recede from it at the entreaties of friends or be driven from it by the menaces of his opponents. We do not quote his precise language, but have fairly given its meaning, and it is easy to infer from it that he expected some weak-kneed, treacherous adherents to fall away from him at the prospect of collision with Congress. He has not been surprised by the defection of the New York Herald, or the faithlessness of the New York Times, or the cowardice and demagogueism of Beecher. He has too long been acquainted with political leaders, and is too accurate a judge of character, to be deceived in his estimate of them. When he adopted his plan of restoration he was convinced that it was lawful and politic, and that it would be sustained by the people. We do not suppose his convictions herein have undergone the slightest change. He chose deliberately, and is not one who yields his opinion at the bidding of others.

Until the Southern States themselves assert a willingness to accept the constitutional amendment, the President cannot, without gross and palpable betrayal of the implied pledges given by him to them, do otherwise than oppose it. Mr. Seward, in one of his speeches on the recent Presidential journey, stated that the conditions which the President asked the Southern States to comply with were understood by the Cabinet as being the only ones which would be demanded as terms of admission. Mr. Johnson did not claim lawful authority to impose those conditions. He said to the South that the public sentiment of the North demanded her compliance with them, and that upon her acceptance of them she would be gladly welcomed again to the Union and reinvested with all her rights under the constitution. This is the simple truth in regard to the President's action in the premises, and no ingenuity of statement or reasoning can pervert it with men who are disposed to judge fairly. The South acted upon his advice, confident that his pledges would be redeemed. He was honest in making them, and she was honest in accepting them. There had not been a session of Congress since the commencement of the war in which there was not legislation acknowledging the Southern States to be lawful States in the Union. In addition to this fact, and the plain constitutional principles asserting the indestructibility of the States and the right of all of them to representation, Mr. Johnson was simply carrying forward the policy projected by Mr. Lincoln. He was fully justified in assuming that there would be no opposition to the return of the Southern States to Congress when they should have complied with the terms he advised them to accept.

Because Congress has proved false and treacherous, and the republican party has abandoned its principles and trampled upon its pledges, must he follow their example? The only obligations which the bad faith of that party imposes upon him are purposes and action corresponding with them, to shield the South from lawless and vindictive malevolence of the radicals and to compel obedience to the constitution and the laws. It is not the South alone who is interested in the defeat or enforcement of the Congressional policy. The principle underlying that policy is that the successful party in a general election in this country is invested by the result with unlimited power. This principle the President is solemnly sworn to oppose. Were the South willing to accept the constitutional amendment to-day, he cannot, consistently with his political education, avoid doing the utmost he can do to defeat it.

The black republican party may as well, now as hereafter, lay aside all hope that the President will yield a jot from the position he has taken, or that the South can be cajoled into the acceptance of the amendment. He will stand firm, and the South and the democrats and conservatives of the North will stand with him. The body assuming to act as Congress will do a great deal on paper, but it is not probable that it will do anything more than to cumber its own records with laws and resolutions which it cannot enforce, or dare attempt to enforce, so far as carrying out the radical programme is concerned.—Chicago Times.

Ocean Telegraphing.

The London Times, of October 1st., says:

"The contents of a lady's thimble would hardly be expected to constitute a very powerful instrument. They would scarcely have been thought capable of one of the most astonishing feats ever performed by science. The Chairman, however, of the Atlantic Telegraph Company tells us that this little instrument has actually achieved such a feat. By way of experiment, the engineer of the company joined the extremities of the two cables which now stretch across the Atlantic, thus forming an immense loop line of 3,700 miles. He then put some acid in a lady's silver thimble, with bits of zinc and copper, and by this simple agency he succeeded in passing signals through the whole length in little more than a second of time. A few years ago, how incredible such a statement would have sounded! It seems, indeed, that the simplicity of the fact has taken even electricians by surprise. When a cable was laid across the whole breadth of the Atlantic, it was anticipated that an unusually high power would be requisite to drive the current in sufficient force through such a length. In the first instance, therefore, they used a battery with fifty cells. But this extraordinary power only injured the cable, and the Company are now working between Valentia and Heart's Content with a battery of only twenty cells.—It is, in fact, remarkable how great the success of the present year has dissipated the supposed difficulties of distant or deep sea telegraphy."

Stock in Virginia and North Carolina.

The Commissioner of Agriculture estimates that there are now in Virginia 172,547 horses; 28,710 mules; 543,122 cattle; 761,586 sheep; and 959,951 hogs. His figures, compared with the census of 1860, show a decrease in horses of 115,032; in mules of 12,305; in cattle of 501,345, or nearly one half; in sheep of 281,683; and in hogs of 639,068.

The Commissioner's estimates for North Carolina are as follows, for this year: 99,436 horses; 33,916 mules; 496,476 cattle; 399,126 sheep, and 1,261,753 hogs. A comparison of these numbers with the census of 1860 gives a decrease of 51,225 horses; 17,472 mules; 267,834 cattle; 147,623 sheep, and 621,461 hogs.

For the eleven States of the South, which composed the Confederacy, the Commissioner gives an aggregate of 1,183,488 horses; 578,076 mules; 6,959,498 cattle; 4,009,736 sheep, and 8,822,249 hogs. The census of 1860 shows that these estimates are less than for that date by 560,209 horses; 243,971 mules; 3,637,906 cattle; 990,041 sheep, and 6,740,418 hogs.

Having carefully made the calculations for our readers, we let the figures speak for themselves.—Richmond Examiner.

The account given in the Philadelphia papers of the luxurious style in which the distinguished banker, Jay Cooke, travelled from Philadelphia to Sandusky, seems to eclipse anything coming properly within the bounds of aristocracy, either in this country or in England. The elegant special car tendered the great buyer and seller of national securities was a superb affair, having all the conveniences of a well-appointed dwelling—a porch in the rear where several may sit and take the air free from dust; an elegantly furnished saloon or parlor, with sofas, tables and mirrors; a sleeping apartment, where sofa seats are quickly transformed into easy couches; a dining-room, with extension tables and all the necessary et ceteras; a pantry well stocked with substantials; wash-rooms, &c.

A forthcoming exhibition of wet nurses is announced in the Paris papers. The points to be considered will be the amount and quality of the milk, the age and temperament of the nurses, the kinds of food used by them, &c. Experiments will be made to demonstrate to what degree malt liquors or spirituous liquors partaken of by the nurse impregnate the milk; also, whether a passionate or fretful temper of the nurse is conveyed to the nursing child. The exhibition promises to be a very curious, interesting and instructive affair.

TO TEACHERS.

The Trustees of the Oxford Female Academy desire to make arrangements with a competent teacher, to take charge of that institution, at the close of the present year. It is pleasantly situated in the town of Oxford, in one of the most healthful sections of the State; it has been in successful operation for more than fifty years, and has perhaps educated more young ladies than any other similar institution in the State.

The trustees will make liberal terms with a competent teacher, who can come well recommended.

Applications will be received until the 10th. day of November next, when a choice will be made.

TEXAS LAND AGENCY.
W. L. ALEXANDER, QUITMAN, TEXAS,
Attorney-at Law, and Real Estate Agent

For the Purchase and Sale of improved and unimproved Real Estate—perfecting Titles—payment of Taxes, and furnishing such information as may be obtained from Public Records or other sources.

Having traveled extensively in Texas during the last five years, and by close observation having become thoroughly acquainted with the intrinsic value of Lands in Eastern and Middle Texas, I with confidence offer my services to the Public, feeling sure of giving satisfaction.

Now is the most propitious time for those desirous of securing homes in Texas. The best Lands can be bought at astonishingly low rates. We offer improved, and unimproved Lands, situated in the timbered or prairie country. Don't delay till the price of Lands becomes high,—and until the farseeing and enterprising have secured all the best, as regards fertility, convenience to market, abundance of good water and healthful locality.

My fees are moderate, and in proportion to the work required of me.

Granville: We have not heard the result in this County. A rumor is in circulation that all the members elect from this County are in favor of the Howard amendment. As a matter of justice to the members elect, (whoever they may be,) we would state that this is an error, as all of the candidates, we learn, were committed against the amendment.

DON'T FORGET the meeting of the stockholders and friends of the Raleigh Manufacturing Company, at the National Bank, this evening at 7 o'clock. We hope that our leading citizens will manifest, by their presence, a proper interest in this important enterprize.

ATTEMPT TO BREAK JAIL.—We learn that a number of Freedmen, confined for various offences in the county jail, came very near effecting their escape last evening. They had succeeded in breaking through all but the outer door, when the alarm was given and their further progress arrested.

BUSINESS ACTIVITY.—The Charlotte Times says:

"The streets have been crowded for the past few days with wagons loaded with the fleecy growth of a hundred cotton fields. The result is great activity in every department of business. The merchants are smiling and good natured, and the clerks busy. This is the liveliest city in the State, and grows and prospers, despite the murky cloud which Radicalism throws over the political horizon."

Our market, for several days past, has been filled with cotton wagons and carts. The staple commands a good price. As our farmers realize the fruits of their crop, money must become more abundant and business generally more active.

THE GERMAN BRASS BAND.—The community is much indebted to Col. Bomford for the admirable performances of the German Brass Band, on the Capitol square. We were delighted, a few evenings since, at the fine execution of this Band. There are nineteen members, all sober, genteel men, led by Capt. Stitt, who has devoted many years to the United States service as a musician. The music is not of that ephemeral, popular caste which pleases every one, but is thoroughly German and by the best masters of the science. The performers are thorough musicians and their performances are executed in admirable taste and time. The lovers of good music certainly lose much who have not listened to them.

By the politeness of Col. Bomford, the Band has performed several evenings at the Institution of the Deaf, Dumb and the Blind, much to the gratification of the officers of the institution and the blind pupils.

THANKS to the Southern Express Company for renewed favors in the way of papers in advance of the mails.

GENERAL NEWS.

ENORMOUS RECEIPTS FROM INTERNAL REVENUE.—The receipts from the internal revenue sources exclusively, up to the 17th., amount to $115,500,000, which is in excess of $1,000,000 per diem, from the beginning of the present fiscal year, the 1st of July. It is believed that the income from this source will reach to nearly the same figures as those of last year, which will be largely in excess of the amount estimated and required, leaving a heavy surplus to be appropriated to the liquidation of the national debt.

The Louisville Courier describes a splendid steamer just built for the passenger and carrying trade between New Orleans, Vicksburg, and the Bends. She was constructed at a cost of $200,000, and is said to be the largest ever put upon the Western waters, and it is thought will prove the swiftest. Her outfit is spoken of as magnificent, her owners being determined to do honor to the name they have given her—Robert E. Lee. It is stated that the Lee can carry 6,000 bales of cotton, and still make railroad time.

JOHN MORRISSEY NOMINATED FOR CONGRESS.—The New York Tribune says: John Morrissey has been nominated by the McKeon Convention as Congressman for the Fifth district, and if endorsed by Tammany, as he hopes to be, may be elected. This fact is but an ordinary result of the corruption of New York politics. Though there have been worse men sent to Congress, yet public decency and the dignity of the National Legislature have seldom been so boldly outraged. To select an ex-prize fighter as a legislator is disgraceful enough, but Morrissey, should he go to Congress, will owe his nomination to the faro-bank.

Dr. R. W. Gibbes, a prominent citizen and journalist of South Carolina, is dead. Doctor Gibbes was for many years editor and proprietor of the Columbia South Carolinian. During the war he was Surgeon General of the State of South Carolina, the duties of which position required his withdrawal from journalistic life. He subsequently sold his paper, and since the war has lived in retirement.

Mrs. M. Leeod, of the Baltimore Southern Literary Institute, proposes to give one full scholarship, including board, &c., to Florida, her native State, and one of tuition only, to each of the other ten Southern States, which formed the Confederacy. Young ladies desirous to take advantage of this liberality will make application through the Southern Relief Association of Baltimore.

Burton, while traveling on a steamboat, seated himself and called for a beefsteak. The waiter furnished him with a small strip of the article. Taking it upon his fork, and turning it over and examining it with one of his peculiar looks, he coolly remarked: "Yes, that's it, bring me some."

An Australian colonist has harnessed up a kangaroo, and put him to labor. The animal works by saltation, and turns machinery with half-horse power. If he gets lazy, a pin stuck in him makes him jump up.

A calculation of the salaries paid to preachers in this country, and the number of sermons preached, according to the New York Observer, shows that the average price paid for sermons, taking the land through, is three cents a sermon.

The Cincinnati Commercial says that large quantities of fowling pieces and ammunition for sporting purposes are purchased in that market for Southern negroes, who are eager to avail themselves of their new privilege of owning a gun.

One of the oldest papers in the world, the Postzeitung, of Frankfort, established in 1616, has just disappeared—suppressed by Bismarck.

Radicals think that war kept the Southern States in the Union, and that peace put them out.—Louisville Journal.

It is stated that thousands of Cornish miners are leaving England and emigrating to America.

Our Saturday Morning Dispatches.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19, P. M.

The State Department has received a communication from our Consul at Guaymas, dated Sept. 11, stating that the evacuation of that port and the State of Sonora by the French forces was to take place on the 14th.

It has also a communication from our Consul at Peru, informing the government that a native Chilian, resident of Lima, has left for the United States, with the object of contracting for 2,000 families of negroes for that country. This speculation is under the color of colonization, but, in fact, the negroes are to be sold in the same manner as the Chinese Coolies, for the term of eight years.

The State Department (This is old news: Sentinel,) has issued a circular to the Governors of the several States, suggesting that all legal and moral means be used to prevent the consummation of such a wrong.

A delegation from North Carolina and Virginia waited upon the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, this morning, with a view to having a change made in the regulations issued by that officer governing the shipment of cotton.

WHO CAN TELL

How much suffering comes from Diseased Livers?—Let parents read the following, and remember that these Pills are safe for the most delicate ladies:

Wm. Carraway, Esq., Wayne Co., N. C. (Sept. 1, 1862, says: "I have used the Southern Hepatic Pills in my family. My daughter was in very bad health from disorder of the liver for the space of three years, hardly having had a week without suffering. She took the Pills regularly and strictly according to the directions on the wrapper, and her health has been entirely restored by them. I have used them with great benefit among my servants on the plantation, and can recommend them as a safe and useful family medicine."

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhœa Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

The Louisville Journal says: "The testimonials which Dr. Gardner presents to the public could never have been obtained, except by the display of great skill and learning in his profession. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear.

SOMETHING NEW UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine!

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
Notary Public,
L. S. Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Gerrick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

J. MAGGIEL, M. D.

P. F. PESCUD AGENT FOR RALEIGH, FOR Maggiel's Pills and Salve.

NOTICE.—None genuine without the engraved trademark around each pot or box, signed by Dr. J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine Street, New York, to counterfeit which is felony.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other expectorant is too patent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

We can only assure the public, that its quality is carefully kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all that it has ever done.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen, and eminent personages, have lent their names to certify the unparalleled usefulness of our remedies, but space here will not permit the insertion of them. The Agents below named furnish gratis our American Almanac in which they are given; with also full descriptions of the complaints they cure.

Those who require an alterative medicine to purify the blood will find AYER'S COMP. EXT. SARSAPARILLA the remedy to use. Try it once, and you will know its value.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by

EXECUTOR'S SALE OF

DESIRABLE DWELLING, NICE TOWN

LOTS, AND A TRACT OF LAND

Near Warrenton, N.C

As executor of Dr. Hugh J. Davis, to effect a division among the legatees, I shall sell to the highest bidder, on the 15th day of November, 1866, at his late residence, in the town of Warrenton, N. C., the DWELLING HOUSE and LOT. Also a Lot in front of Dwelling, and a Lot adjoining the Court-House square; and a tract of Land about two miles distant from Warrenton.

The Dwelling is in cottage style, containing ten rooms, and has two basements. Near the centre of the town, surrounded by magnificent oaks, it is in one of the handsomest locations in Warrenton, on a lot of about four and a half acres, having an ample yard and garden well inclosed, with Stables, Kitchen, Smoke House, Dairy, Carriage House, Corn Crib, Servants' House, two good Offices in the yard, a well of excellent water, and is bounded by four streets. The square is sufficiently large, and so arranged as to be divided into two beautiful Building Lots, fronting towards the main part of the town. The Lot in front of the Dwelling is enclosed, contains over an acre, without any building, and is bounded by three streets.

The lot in rear of the Court-House fronts on the street about one hundred and ninety-two (192) feet, and contains about three-fourths of an acre. This lot has a Store, with several rooms, at the north corner, a residence in the centre, with several rooms, and an office with two rooms at the south end.

The tract of Land contains two hundred and eleven acres, in original growth partly, but mostly in second growth pine, and is situated on both sides of the main road to Clark's Bridge. Being so near Warrenton by a good road, this tract is valuable for its fire wood, having been reserved for this purpose, but would make a nice farm.

Possession of Dwelling and Lots given on first of January, 1867, and the tract of Land given up at sale.

TERMS—On the Dwelling, five hundred dollars cash, and on that and the rest of the property a credit of twelve months, from day of possession. Bonds, with satisfactory security, required and title withheld until payment. Inquiries answered.

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the Collegiate Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise.

1866. FALL TRADE 1866.

M'ILWAINE & CO.,

WHOLESALE DEALERS IN STAPLE & FANCY DRY GOODS.

No. 79 Sycamore Street,

Petersburg, Virginia,

TAKE PLEASURE IN INFORMING THEIR friends and the trade generally that the steady increase of their business has rendered it necessary for them to add two rooms to their Dry Goods Department, together with a large and convenient entrance from Tabb street, which arrangement gives them a most spacious Sales-room, well lighted, and enables them by this increased accommodation to add largely to their Fall Supply.

They beg leave to invite particular attention to their extensive assortment of

Ready-Made Clothing,

made to order under the supervision of Mr. A. S. SHAFER, whose long experience in this department of business, in this city, has made him familiar with the wants of Merchants in Virginia and North Carolina. Anticipating a heavy Trade this Fall, their stock will be found unusually large, embracing a general assortment of

American and Foreign

STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS,

together with a full line of

which having been purchased for cash, they have no hesitation in saying to the Trade, that they are prepared to offer such inducements as will insure satisfaction.

Capt. EDWARD GRAHAM and Mr. JOHN McNEECE have charge of this Department, and will be pleased to exhibit our stock to buyers visiting this market.
